Mrs. Ethel Lane is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Henderson.

Base Ball Notes.
Friday's game—Jacksonville Tigers vs. Kennedy's Black Cats. The game did not start until 7:30 p. m. The game was not very interesting. Only six of the Cats played. Three Kitten were added, making it nine.

Batteries for Jacksonville: Gibson and Etter.

Batteries for Rusk: George Williams and Copeland.

Scores 4 to 0 in favor of Jacksonville.

Darkness ended the game on the sixth inning.

Jacksonville was elated over the victory and returned Saturday.

Saturday's Game.
Kennedy's Black Cats were reinforced.

Batteries for Rusk: Williams and White (of Nacogdoches).

Batteries for Jacksonville: McLee and Etter.

Scores 8 to 0 in favor of Rusk.

Notes on the Game.
Jacksonville's heavy hitters, Etter, Williams and Taylor, never got to see the first base.

Rusk will play Jacksonville, Monday, Tyler two days and Nacogdoches three days.

At Jacksonville, Monday, the batteries for Rusk will be Thompson and White. The batteries for Jacksonville will be Gibson and Etter.

Ned Williams of Rusk team holds a splendid record for pitching. He is thought to be one of the best in the state. Those who are authorities on base ball have pronounced Williams the equal of any in the state, if not the best pitcher in the state. His good pitching was the talk of the visitors to the ball work.

WACO.
The delegates who attended the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows have returned and report a very successful session.

Mr. Moore, former supervisor of our War Camp Community center has been transferred to Knoxville, Tenn. He is succeeded by Mr. Danby of Alabama. Mr. Danby seems to be very much interested in the work that he has been chosen for and we predict for him success.

Mrs. M. A. Williams has gone to Denver, Colorado for a visit. Mr. W. H. Holloway has been appointed by the War Camp Community Service to take charge of the Center in Dallas. He left last Saturday for his new field of labor.

Much interest is being manifested in the movement to organize our laborers into unions. Already there are several locals and they seem to be bringing about favorable results.

Madams Sorrelle and Tatum commented their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Hickman with a party last Sunday night.

A number of friends had been invited and they enjoyed the evening indulging in the usual past times.

Have you noticed the Dodge club? They can be seen on the pikes most any pleasant Sunday evening.

Prof. Edwin Stamps of Prairie View was in the city a few days last week. Prof. Stamps was en route to Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter of Mexico motored to Waco to spend a few days with Mrs. Porter's sisters, Madams Morris and Warren.

Misses Mable and Lucile Morris accompanied their aunt to Mexico.

The girls and women's department of the War Camp Center is under the supervision of Miss Harrison. Miss Harrison has made special preparation for this kind of social service work and hopes to do much good among our girls and women. We hope that every public spirited Race man and woman will encourage Miss Harrison and lend her all the assistance possible.

The young people of Waco have formed a Tennis and Pleasure club. They play tennis and croquet at the South Waco school court and very soon hope to locate courts in the heart of the city. Mr. Francis Bevin is the president and Miss Margaret Duval is the secretary of the Waco Tennis and pleasure club. They have twenty members.

Prof. A. S. Jackson and wife, Mr. W. S. Willis and Prof. J. H. Hines left last week for Atlantic City to attend the Supreme Lodge of P. D. Dr. Davis of Calvert, motored over from Marlin last Monday.
